INTRODUCTION

In 1996, the Tertiary Level Institutions Unit (TLIU) produced a Profile of Tertiary Level Institutions in the Non-Campus Countries, featuring tertiary level institutions in 11 countries. The first three editions were produced in two volumes: Volume I focussed on the countries in the campus countries and Volume II included institutions in the non-campus countries. This fourth edition is produced in one volume - focusing on forty-one (41) Tertiary Level Institutions in the Campus Countries and thirteen (13) TLIs of the Non-Campus Countries.

The Colleges are at different stages of development. In spite of their differences, the colleges are characterised by a number of common features. Firstly, they are comprehensive in their range of programme offerings, delivering academic programmes for university transfer; general education programmes; and career and occupational education and training in teacher education, nursing, and a range of technical and vocational programmes geared toward the technical and business fields. Secondly, they offer adult and continuing education courses to meet general interest and to upgrade skills. Thirdly, the colleges are mainly publicly funded institutions which are either free to the students at the point of delivery or charge a nominal fee as in the case of the British Virgin Islands. Fourthly, they display characteristic pragmatism and adaptability in programme design and delivery to meet the needs of the communities, which they serve.

The institutions featured in the Campus section are:

The institutions featured in the Non-Campus section are:

- (i) Antigua State College
- (ii) Bahamas Baptist Community College
- (iii) College of Bahamas
- (iv) H. Lavity Stoutt Community College
- (v) Dominica State College
- (vi) Community College of the Cayman Islands

- (x) St. Vincent & The Grenadines Community College
- (xi) St. Vincent & The Grenadines Technical College
- (xii) St. Vincent & The Grenadines Teachers' College
- (xiii) Turks and Caicos Islands Community College

These two sections comprise mainly multi-disciplinary institutions except for the Specialist Technical Colleges, Trinidad and Tobago and St Vincent and the Grenadines. The majority of these institutions are public entities except for the three Jamaican management institutes, the Caribbean Union College, ROYTEC and the Hospitality Institute in Trinidad and Tobago, which are private institutions.

It is noteworthy that over the years, UWI has established relationships of different types with the large majority of TLIs in the region. With respect to the institutions which are described in the Profiles, the relationships are many and varied.

Four Community Colleges in Jamaica deliver UWI Preliminary Science Programmes and five offer the UWI Certificates in Public Administration, Business Administration, Management Studies or Social Services. The Teachers' Colleges and education departments of colleges have special arrangements with the UWI through the Joint Board for Teacher Education or the Standing Conference for Teacher Education. In the past, the College of the Bahamas delivered UWI's Bachelor's programme in Education - a programme which Sir Arthur Lewis Community College currently offers. Erdiston Teachers' Training College offers both the UWI Certificate in Educational Management & Administration and the Diploma in Education.

Antigua State College (ASC), Sir Arthur Lewis Community College (SALCC) and the Clarence Fitzroy Bryant College (CFBC) deliver first year UWI degree programmes in Humanities, Pure & Applied Sciences and Social Sciences, and ASC and SALCC also deliver Year 2 UWI programmes in Humanities and Social Sciences.

Several Associate Degree and Diploma programmes are accepted by UWI for normal matriculation or advanced placement from institutions in The Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Cayman Islands, Commonwealth of Dominica, Grenada, Jamaica, St. Kitts & Nevis, St. Lucia and Trinidad and Tobago.

Excelsior Community College and Brown's Town Community College offer the BSN, Knox College in Jamaica intends to offer the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education and MIND delivers Levels I and II of the Bachelor of Science in Public Administration.

The Dominica State College was established in 2002 by the Government of Dominica by a merger of the following institutions:

- (1) The Dominica Teachers' Training College,
- (2) The Clifton Dupigny Community College (Academic and Technical Divisions), and
- (3) The Princess Margaret School of Nursing.

The College has the following faculties - Arts & Sciences, Applied Science & Technology Education and Health Sciences.

The area of programme articulation within and among the tertiary level institutions and UWI is one which is currently evoking much interest and on-going activity. One barrier to this articulation is lack of information. This Profiles of Tertiary Level Institutions is intended to provide information on the: -

- (i) institutional data;
- (ii) statistical data;
  - o student enrolment by programme and gender over the period 2000/2001 - 2002/2003;
  - o student enrolment by level and gender;
  - o teaching staff by gender;
  - o highest academic qualifications of teaching staff by gender; and
  - o higher education/training of staff by gender.

The TLI Unit wishes to thank all the institutions which have contributed to this venture and looks forward to their continued collaboration. The Unit also takes this opportunity to invite other TLIs to share relevant information. Data forms can be obtained from TLIU or by e-mailing jlong@uwichill.edu.bb, lwhittington@uwichill.edu.bb or sestwick@uwichill.edu.bb. This information will assist the TLIU in its mandate to strengthen the regional tertiary education system and the institutional linkages with the University of the West Indies.
